Privacy and Cookie Policy

Our website nd.net use cookies. In this cookie policy, we explain what cookies are, what they do, which cookies we use and why.

Because ND Group B.V. uses the 'privacy friendly' settings of Google Analytics, ND Group B.V. uses less data from you and you are not required to give permission.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored in the user's browser. Cookies make it easier to use and navigate our website.

Cookies on our website

We use the following types of cookies:

- Functional (strictly necessary) cookies;
- Analytical cookies.

The various types of cookies ND Group B.V. uses are described below.

Functional cookies

ND Group B.V. uses functional cookies that are strictly necessary for using the websites. ND Group B.V. must use functional cookies to ensure that your choice to reject or accept these cookies is remembered. These cookies remain on your device for a maximum period of two years. Your permission for the use of these cookies is not required.

Analytical cookies

ND Group B.V. uses analytical cookies to further improve and change the website. These cookies allow us to see how, when and with what device you use our websites. This information enables us to analyse the use of our website and generate statistics. This allows us to better understand the visitors of our website and to improve the website using that knowledge. For this purpose we use Google Analytics, from Google Inc. Based on the data
